

Do not produce legislation that would weaken Indiana's NO CALL legislation. It is good! I have a right not to be interrupted in my home by phone solisitations. Credit card companies were amoung the worst to call to try to sell you things that were totally unrelated to the credit cards that I held.